

A One-year Professional Development Plan for New Educational Developers

As a faculty member interested in ED, get involved with your teaching and learning centre, mentor your colleagues and get an ED mentor yourself

Gateway to ED

As a graduate student interested in ED, get involved with your teaching and learning centre, mentor your peers and get an ED mentor yourself

As a community member, take on a leadership role, mentor your colleagues and peers and get an ED mentor

Attend workshops, courses and events offered by EDs you work with

Develop who you are as an ED and your philosophy

Develop yourself as an expert in a particular field or niche

Join working groups

Network with individuals you support

SEDA
STATE AND EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION
Take courses and certificate programs related to ED

Engage in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning

Develop and continually update your ED portfolio

Get a Mentor

How?

Network with other EDs

Become a Member!

Attend and present at conferences

Subscribe to listservs

