Steps that continue to strengthen your success...

Identified your goals and created steps to get you from beginning to end.

When things didn’t work out, you restructured your plan.

You connected with an accessibility counsellor, tutor and/or coach either in person or online.

You followed through on your plan.